San Francisco State University – Department of Psychology
Fall 2013 Hartman Family Scholarship in Psychology
$500 scholarships available for undergraduate students

BACKGROUND
The Hartman Family Scholarship in Psychology is available in honor of Dr. Susan Hartman Taylor. Dr. Susan Hartman Taylor was a faculty member in Industrial/ Organizational Psychology at SFSU. She also served as the Chair of the department, Associate Dean of the College of BSS, and as Dean of Undergraduate Studies until her death in 2000. The goal of the Hartman Family Scholarship in Psychology is to provide scholarships to undergraduate students based on financial need and academic merit.

REQUIREMENTS
Students awarded the Hartman Family Scholarship in Psychology shall:
- Be a declared Psychology major or applied to the impacted major (and awaiting admissions decision).
- Have a current cumulative all-college GPA of 3.0 or better
- Have financial need as determined by the SF State Office of Student Financial Aid. Apply or reapply using the online 2013-2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.ed.gov (students are encouraged to apply by the March 2, 2013 priority deadline).
- Be currently enrolled in at least 6 units currently.
- Enroll in a minimum of 6 units in the semester the scholarship is awarded (Fall 2013).

Preference will be given to students who plan to pursue a career in Psychology.
